Isaiah 36-37

deja vu...

Isaiah 7?!

Isaiah 36

“trust” x 7

who do you TRUST?

<sup>4</sup> And the Rabshakeh said to them, “Say to Hezekiah, ‘Thus says the <sup>p</sup>great king, the king of Assyria: On what do you rest this trust of yours? <sup>5</sup> Do you think that mere words are strategy and power for war? In whom do you now trust, that you have rebelled against me? <sup>6</sup> <sup>q</sup>Behold, you are trusting in Egypt, that broken reed of a staff, which will pierce the hand of any man who leans on it. Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. <sup>7</sup> But if you say to me, “We trust in the LORD our God,” is it not he <sup>r</sup>whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and to Jerusalem, “You shall worship before this altar”? <sup>8</sup> Come now, make a wager with my master the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them. <sup>9</sup> How then can you repulse <sup>s</sup>a single captain among the least of my master’s servants, when <sup>t</sup>you trust in Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? <sup>10</sup> Moreover, is it without the LORD that I have come up against this land to destroy it? <sup>u</sup>The LORD said to me, “Go up against this land and destroy it.””

Mockery

Questioning who they trust in: Pharaoh, YHWH?

Let’s make a deal...

Ridicule

Your God told me to # “deliver” x 7

who will DELIVER you?

<sup>13</sup> Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out in a loud voice in the language of Judah:
“Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! <sup>14</sup> Thus says the king: <sup>w</sup>“Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you. <sup>15</sup> Do not let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD by saying, “The LORD will surely deliver us. This city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.” ...<sup>18</sup> Beware lest Hezekiah mislead you by saying, “The LORD will deliver us.” Has any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? <sup>19</sup> <sup>y</sup>Where are the gods of <sup>z</sup>Hamath and <sup>z</sup>Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? <sup>a</sup>Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? <sup>20</sup> <sup>b</sup>Who among all the gods of these lands have delivered their lands out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?”

Disrespects their request

Heaps honor on the king of Assyria, but doesn't use Hezekiah's title

Beware Hezekiah!?
Planting doubt

Terrorizing language

Like the serpent, his words sound appealing...

<sup>16</sup> Do not listen to Hezekiah. For thus says the king of Assyria: Make your peace with me<sup>2</sup> and come out to me. Then each one of you will eat of his own vine, and each one of his own fig tree, and each one of you will drink the water of his own cistern, <sup>17</sup> until <sup>x</sup>I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

Gosh, it sounds like God's voice...

Is that a familiar Israelite blessing?

The Lord's actual words

Isaiah 27:2 In that day,

"A pleasant vineyard,<sup>a</sup> sing of it!

3 I, the Lord, am its keeper;

every moment I water it....

5 Or let them lay hold of my protection,

let them make peace with me,

let them make peace with me."

6 In days to come<sup>b</sup> Jacob shall take root,

Israel shall blossom and put forth shoots and fill the whole world with fruit.

Isaiah 32:18 My people will abide in a peaceful habitation, in secure dwellings, and in quiet resting places.

Micah 4:4 (a contemporary of Isaiah!)

Everyone will sit under their own vine and under their own fig tree, and no one will make them afraid, for the LORD Almighty has spoken.

Don't be fooled...

“Has my master sent me to speak these words to your master and to you, and not to the men sitting on the wall, who are doomed with you to eat their own dung and drink their own urine?”

How do we TRAIN FOR TRUST?

- “We can combat racial battle fatigue and also lighten our loads by taking care of our health, or we become vulnerable to racial battle fatigue simply because we fail to do the basics: eating well, getting sleep, and exercising.” (Healing Racial Trauma, 37)
- Recognize personal patterns (eg: serving the church, mistrusting authority, wanting to flee disappointment)
- Practice spiritual disciplines (daily journaling, personal prayer time beyond scripture-reading, monthly spiritual direction).

<sup>21</sup> But they were silent and answered him not a word, for the king's command was, "Do not answer him."<sup>22</sup> <sup>c</sup>Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, and Shebna the secretary, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Hezekiah Seeks Isaiah's Help

<sup>37</sup> <sup>d</sup>As soon as King Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes and covered himself with sackcloth and went into the house of the LORD.<sup>2</sup> And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the secretary, and the senior priests, covered with sackcloth, to the prophet <sup>e</sup>Isaiah the son of Amoz.<sup>3</sup> They said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah, This day is a day of distress, of rebuke, and of disgrace; <sup>g</sup>children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength to bring them forth.<sup>4</sup> <sup>h</sup>It may be that the LORD your God will hear the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to mock the living God, and will rebuke the words that the LORD your God has heard; therefore lift up your prayer for <sup>i</sup>the remnant that is left."

How do you PRAY for DELIVERANCE?

Go straight to God

<sup>14</sup> Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. <sup>15</sup> And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD:

Declare who God is (Creator)

<sup>16</sup> “O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, <sup>s</sup>enthroned above the cherubim, you are the God, you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; <sup>t</sup>you have made heaven and earth.

Ask God to Hear and See

<sup>17</sup> <sup>u</sup>Incline your ear, O LORD, and hear; open your eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear <sup>v</sup>all the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to mock the living God.

Acknowledge Idols get destroyed

<sup>18</sup> Truly, O LORD, <sup>w</sup>the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations and their lands, <sup>19</sup> and have cast their gods into the fire. For they were no gods, but the work of men’s hands, wood and stone. Therefore they were destroyed.

God, Establish Your Renown

<sup>20</sup> So now, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you alone are the LORD.”

Epilogue: God Comes Thru

Isaiah 37:5 When the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah, <sup>6</sup> Isaiah said to them, “Say to your master, ‘Thus says the LORD: Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the young men of the king of Assyria have reviled me. <sup>7</sup> Behold, <sup>j</sup>I will put a spirit in him, so that <sup>k</sup>he shall hear a rumor and return to his own land, and <sup>l</sup>I will make him fall by the sword in his own land.’”

21 “Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennacherib King of Assyria...33 He shall not come into this city...or cast up a siege mound against it...35 For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake and for the sake of my servant David.”

36 And the angel of the Lord went out and struck down 185,000 in the camp of the Assyrians. And when people arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies. 37 Then Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and returned home and lived at Nineveh. 38 And as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god...his sons, struck him down with the sword. And after they escaped...Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.”
